

Privacy Policy

We believe that privacy is a fundamental right. That is why we design and build all our products and services with your privacy in mind. This privacy policy explains what data we collect, how we use it, and what choices you have.

1. Data Collection

When you use our products and services, we may collect the following types of data:

- Personal data: such as your name, email address, postal address, phone number, account details, and payment information
- Device data: including device model, operating system, unique device identifiers, and crash logs
- Usage data: such as your interactions with our apps, websites, and services, location data, and preferences

2. Use of Data

We use your data solely for legitimate purposes, including:

- Providing and improving our products, services, and customer support
- Personalizing your experience
- Complying with legal obligations
- Ensuring security and preventing fraud

We never sell your personal data to third parties and only share it as described in this policy or with your consent.

3. Data Sharing

In certain cases, we may share data with:

- Service providers who work on our behalf under strict confidentiality agreements
- Business partners as part of integrated services or joint initiatives
- Government authorities when required by law or to protect our rights

4. Your Privacy Rights

You have control over your data. Depending on your location, you may have the right to:

- Request access to your data
- Have your data corrected or deleted
- Object to data processing
- Withdraw your consent at any time

You can exercise these rights through your account settings or by contacting our customer support.

5. Data Security

We use industry-leading security measures to protect your data, including encryption, two-factor authentication, and privacy-focused system design. We are committed to keeping your data secure during transmission and storage.

6. Children and Privacy

Our services are not intended for children under the age of 13 (or the minimum age in your region), unless under parental supervision with consent. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children without parental or guardian permission.

7. International Data Transfers

Your data may be stored and processed on servers outside your country of residence. In such cases, we ensure appropriate safeguards in accordance with applicable privacy laws, such as the GDPR or equivalent standards.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time. In case of significant changes, we will inform you via our website, our products, or by email. The most recent version is always available on our website.

9. Contact

If you have any questions or requests regarding your privacy, please feel free to contact us.
